4. HOW YOU CAN MAKE A CLAIM

- 4.1. This warranty is non-transferable and applies to the original Customer only.
- 4.2. Any claim in relation to a warranty set out in this New Trailer Warranty should be referred to an authorised Trek Lifestyle dealer. All warranty defects must be reported to an authorised Trek Lifestyle dealer as soon as possible and no later than 14 days from becoming aware of the defect.

- 4.2.1. In order to claim under these warranties, a Customer must, at its own cost, present the Trailer to an authorised Trek Lifestyle dealer and collect the Trailer at their expense once notified by the Trek Lifestyle dealer that the Trailer is ready for collection. A list of all authorised Trek Lifestyle dealers and their location and contact details may be found at www.treklifestyle.com
- 4.2.2. You are responsible for maintaining all documentation required to produce a warranty claim for a Trailer. To make a warranty claim during the warranty period, you must validate ownership details, provide proof of purchase to an authorised Trek Lifestyle dealer showing the date of purchase of the Trailer, provide a full description of the defect, whether material, workmanship or structural integrity and whether it's for a major or a minor component of the Trailer.
- 4.2.3. Trek Lifestyle reserves the right to inspect and test defective part(s) that are the subject of any claim under this New Trailer Warranty for the purpose of determining the extent of any defect and the validity of such claim.
- 4.2.4. The servicing or repair of your Trailer by third parties that are not authorised Trek Lifestyle dealers will not void your warranties; however, to the extent that any problem arises due to any third-party servicing or repairs, Trek Lifestyle reserves the right to request additional information about the work and servicing performed on your Trailer. Trek Lifestyle will not be liable for damages, defects or failures caused by having your Trailer serviced or repaired by third parties that are not authorised Trek Lifestyle dealers.
- 4.2.5. Subject to applicable laws, Trek Lifestyle reserves the right to deny or cancel all or a portion of the reimbursement and/or warranties given to you under this New Trailer Warranty, at any time, in its sole discretion, should you present incomplete, insufficient, false and/or fraudulent claims and/or documents in relation to your claims under this New Trailer Warranty.
- 4.3. To honour a valid claim made under the New Trailer Warranty, we will either repair or replace the Trailer within the applicable warranty period free of charge or authorise the Trailer to be replaced or repaired free of charge. Unless required by law, our maximum liability extends to the repair or replacement of the defective Trailer, or at our sole discretion, a full refund up to the maximum purchase price.
- 4.4. The New Trailer Warranty does not provide for reimbursement or payment of incidental expenses or consequential damages. Any transport, towing or other incidental costs, including any applicable insurance, are your responsibility.
- 4.5. The New Trailer Warranty is in addition to other rights and remedies which you have at law. Your rights under the Consumer Protection laws are not affected by the expiry of any contractual warranty, including the New Trailer Warranty.

5. WARRANTY EXCLUSIONS

- 5.1. The scope of this warranty is expressly limited to items actually constructed by Trek Lifestyle. Trek Lifestyle makes no warranty with respect to any component parts constructed or assembled by other manufacturers. Such component parts may be warranted by their respective manufacturers, and we will use our reasonable efforts to pass on to you the benefit of any applicable third-party manufacturer warranties.

- 5.2. Where your claim does not fall under the term “defects from manufacturer”, it will not be covered by the New Trailer Warranty. This includes claims in relation to:

Damage:	Any defects resulting from an accident, impact, fire, improper repairs, illegal use or malicious or accidental damage to your Trailer (including damage by a third person).
Force Majeure:	Damage due to events out of our control, including Force Majeure, once you take delivery of the Trailer.
Instructions:	Defects where you have not used the Trailer in accordance with the operating instructions or design specifications.
Misuse:	Any defects resulting from operator negligence, misuse or abuse; loading and towing beyond specified load and capacity, driving the Trailer in an off-road condition beyond the designed or intended use of the Trailer or tampering or disconnection of electrics, loading corrosive substances or sharp objects into the tub.
Modifications:	Any modifications, dismantling or other alterations that have not been approved by Trek Lifestyle, and any defect caused by changes to original equipment and the fitment of non-approved parts or accessories.
Overloading:	Any defects resulting from the Trailer being subjected to overloading, even if the overloading is only momentary.
Reporting & Repairs:	Failure to report warranty defects within a timely manner and have them repaired quickly, or have the trailer repaired promptly in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations following an accident or other damage or after a defect becomes known or suspected.
Rust & Paint:	This warranty does not cover the cosmetic appearance of your Trailer and excludes deterioration due to rust or the fading of any painted or other types of surfaces.
Trailer Care:	Failure to maintain and care for your Trailer, including the paint and trim in accordance with Trek Lifestyle's recommendations, including improper maintenance such as the use of incorrect cleaning agents.
Tyres:	Tyres may be covered by manufacturer warranties from tyre suppliers. Your authorised Trek Lifestyle dealer may be able to assist you with claiming this warranty from the supplier. If a tyre is found to be defective within the New Trailer Warranty period, it will be assessed on the nature of the defect and the percentage of wear incurred. Where tyres are covered by a warranty, the warranty will not be for a time period, but rather it will be against a faulty manufacturer.

6. GUARANTEES UNDER THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONSUMER PROTECTION LAW (“SACPL”)

- 6.1. Our products come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the SACPL. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the products fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.
- 6.2. Trek Lifestyle will process funds in accordance with the SACPL for major failures (“Major Failures”) and minor failures (“Minor Failures”).
- 6.3. For example, a Major Failure occurs when you would not have bought the products if you had known about the defect, the products are significantly different to what was described, the products are substantially unfit for their usual purpose or a purpose made known to you or the products are unsafe. For Major Failures or major problems with the products as defined under the SACPL, you are entitled to a replacement or refund.
- 6.4. If the products fail to be of acceptable quality, and the failure does not amount to a Major Failure (“Minor Failure”), we are entitled to an opportunity to fix the minor problem as long as this is within a reasonable period of time. If we cannot fix the Minor Failure, you are entitled to cancel the contract with us and obtain a refund.
- 6.5. This document should not be read as excluding, restricting or modifying your rights and remedies under the SACPL.
